

In Loving Memory

This newsletter is dedicated in memory of my father, Joseph Daniel Greene, Jr. who died unexpectedly July 20th, 2004. As many of you know, my father and I had a special bond... I was his little "Bee", and he was my biggest fan. Always letting me know how proud he was of me, he supported me with unconditional love, and accepted me no matter what. I learned many lessons from my father – mainly to never give up. This time was tough. My heart sank to an all time low as letting him go was extremely painful. I cancelled my book tour and took time to grieve.

Turning to my higher power, I called on my angels for support and was guided to be among my family of Energy practitioners who worked to mend my torn energies so my healing process could begin.

While my heart is wounded, and

I miss my dad deeply, I know that he is in a better place and is with me now more than ever. Until we meet again, he remains in my heart forever.

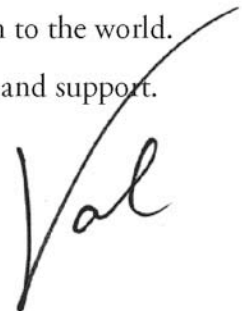

The storms of life will always come, some worse than others. Once again, all I can do is to let go, have faith and move forward.

Resuming my tour, I press on to deliver my message of hope and inspiration to the world.

Thank you for all your love and support.
